JIM BASEY A GAME RACER

SON OF SALVATION CONTINUES HIS WINNING CAREER AT OAKLAND.

Concedes Much Weight to Good Opposition of His Own Age and Wins by a Nose in Hard Drive Starter Dwyer at the Barrier.

San Francisco, Cal., December 12.—Jim Basey ran another brilliant race at Oakland today when he conceded much weight to some good racers of his own age and gained a nose victory in the third race at five-eighths. The Salvation colt ruled an even money favorite and, away flying, set a fast pace. The lightly weighted Winning Widow assumed the lead at the three-eighths post, but Jim Basey headed her in the final furlong and stood a drive with characteristic gameness.

lead at the three-eighths post, but Jim Basey headed her in the final furlong and stood a drive with characteristic gameness.

While riding Jim Gaffney, favorite for the fourth race, jockey Shilling was taken with cramps and was unable to do his mount justice. He closed considerable ground, but was beaten in a drive by Rosevale, Keep Moving ran an improved race and leat Belmere in the second. Hooray, favorite of the last race, got away poorly, but ran a good race. A plunge on Belleview caused him to close favorite for the fifth race, but he failed to show anything to warrant it. Captain Burnett, which looked best on form, won easily from Eigin, an outsider.

Richard Dwyer sont the fields away in good shape. He was given an ovation when he made his appearance at the barrier in the first race.

Stewart Polk and John Lowe will go to Juarez tomorrow. Mr. Polk has Irrigator and Smiley Metzner, while Mr. Lowe takes Sona and Bitter Sir. The latter says his borses do not run well on a muddy track. H. M. Mason will take Special Delivery, Setback and Anne McGee to the Mexican track.

W. Taylor was suspended for four days for getting

The pick of American jockeys are riding here this winter. Local officials cannot recall the time when such a galaxy of riding talent was gathered at a winter track. POLLS TAKES JUAREZ FEATURE.

El Paso, Tex., December 12.—Faultless weather and an attractive program drew a Sunday attendance somewhat larger than usual to Terrazas Park vesterday. The principal event of the card was the La Libertad Handicap at one and an eighth miles, which gave the public the second opportunity of the meeting to witness a start at close range, the field being dispatched directly in front of the stand. After a delay of five minutes at the post, caused by the fractiousness of Meadow, they were finally sent away to a perfect start. Harrigan taking the lead, opened a big gap, which he maintained until the far turn was reached. Then Meadow, which had been running in the rear, moved up, with Polls in close attendance. After turning for home, Polls challenged the leader and, with a little urging, passed him and won quite easily. Harrigan tired badly under his heavy impost, but finished with rare gameness. Meadow fell back after looming dangerously on the stretch turn.

Angelus, favorite for the third race, had little trouble in disposing of his opposition.

The fifth race resulted in an exciting stretch duel between Nettic Marchmont and Love-Not. They raced like a team from the turn to the wire. Love-Not ran as if short and this race will doubtless improve her.

Word was received that W. Walker bad left Oak-land Friday night with his stable, accompanied by jockey Forehand.

Colonel Winn and his daughter left last night for a short, vacation trip to California. H. F. Breivogel will act as manager and steward during Manager Winn's absence.

Jockey Hawes received an injury to his eye in the first race that necessitated the cancelling of his engagements for the remainder of the day.

Del Cruzador, winner of the second race, was boosted by W. C. Weant to $700, but was retained by owner W. A. Buck.

Jockey C. Vandusen arrived from Oakland last night.

MARY DAVIS BEATS SANDRIAN.

Young Horses Afforded Abundant Opportunity for Racing at Jacksonville Track.

Jacksonville, Fla., December 12.—The conditions in a majority of the races at Moncrief this after-noon were framed to permit two-year-olds to start. The first three races were exclusively for horses of that age, while the mile and-a sixteenth condition race called for all ages. The last three races furnished keen contests, with the winners first home by small margins. J. W. May sent his first winner of the meeting to the post in L. P. Doerhofer's Wateferess filly, Mary Davis, which beat Sandrian a neck in a stirring stretch drive in the fourth race. Sandrian probably would have won but for having been cutt off at the stretch turn. In the opening dash Catesby Woodford showed up a shifty maiden in Bertis, which won in a canter after overcoming much early interference.

Only two favorites won, the successful choices being Mary Davis and St. Joseph. Malltine was forced to run close to the track record to win the fifth race. Her owner did not profit to any great extent by her victory, as he was forced to stand a boost of $300 to retain the filly. Guy Gray was responsible for the run-up.

Tom Hayward, Oakley and Ford Bank were withdrawn, as the conditions of the races in which they were entered, rendered them ineligible.

Guy Gray claimed Idleweiss from W. Gerst on Saturday.

Jockey Gross was to larve ridden Sandrian in the fourth race, but was taken sick and Obert was substituted. The latter claimed a foul against the winner, but it was not allowed.

J. Wilson, who had the momin on Glucose in the fourth race, was suspended by the stewards for striking jockey McCahey with his whip while they were rounding the first turn.
George P. Chinn, who is associated with J. W. Frey in the ownership of a big stable of racers here, was an arrival from Lexington this morning. Here will remain here until about the first of January, when his partner will come down.
John W. and Charles Gates arrived in Jacksonville this morning. They are here buying fruit trees to be shipped to their ranch at Port Arthur, Tex. It is their intention to patronize about two weeks of the racing at Moncrief before their return to, Texas.

G. T. Miller, preparatory to leaving for Norfolk, disposed of the sprinter Henry Crosscaddin to the Beverwyck Stable for $300.

Starter Dade's work at the barrier is giving excellent satisfaction to local patrons of racing. Be Tribe and William Snyder are his assistants.

M. Bell is regarded as the most promising of the apprentice riders here.

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

C. H. Shilling rode the most winners among American jockeys last week, but reduced Guy Gar-ner's lead over him by but two. The record of the thirty leading American jockeys from January 1 to and including the racing of Saturday last is as fol-

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Twenty oral layers are operating at Oakland The stallion Norwood, by Longfellow—May Day's reported dead at the stud of Pitts & Dorrier cottsville, Va.

Jockey Herman Radtke, who has recently returned from Russia, is reported to have married Miss Helen Worth at Jersey City Saturday.

C. A. Tilles has ordered the demolition of the grandstand at Clinton Park, Little Rock, Ark. The structure was in a tottering condition.

The judges at Pensacola will not permit jockey Ramsey to ride until he straightens out his affairs with William Walker, who claims to have a con-tract on the boy.

Secretary Boykin of the Augusta, Ga., Chamber of Commerce, is working hard in an endeavor to interest capital in the proposition for a winter race track at that place.

The annual meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club will be held tomorrow, when it is expected that announcement will be made of the decision to adopt the pari-mutuel system of betting at Blue Bonnets next spring.

Barney Schreiber is said to be thinking seriously of sending one of his Sain stallions, Deutschland Nealon or Otis, to Kentucky to make the season of 1911. Good stallions will be scarce in Kentucky next spring, it is figured.

next spring, it is ngured.

D. Raymond of Montreal has purchased the English-bred yearling, Lord Ladas, by Primrose Lad. by Ladas, winner of the Derby. He will run him as a two-year-old next season and will donate him to the Canadian Breeding Bureau in 1912, when he will be three years old.

SUIT AGAINST JOCKEY CLUB.

San Francisco, Cal., December 12.—James F. Lawler, a former prize fighter, who was ruled off the turf last year and who has been refused admission to the Oakland race track since the opening this season, has begun suit against the New California Jockey Club for $1.600 damages, representing $400 for each of the following four days: November 18, 19, 21 and 22. Lawler says he purchased a ticket for $2 on each of those days, but was ejected.

The California law provides for a penalty of $100 a day where a person entitled to admission to a public race track is turned away. Lawler sues for the $100 a day and for $300 a day special damages. His attorney, A. S. Newburgh, says that additional suits will be started for other days upon which Lawler was refused admission.

$1 mutuels paid, Bad News, $5.55 straight, $1.75 place, $1.25 show: Kopek, $2.35 place, $1.25 show: Light Wool, $1.25 show.

Light Wool, $1.25 show.

Winner—Br. g, by Flying Dutchman—Black Sleeves (trained by W. Hurley).

Went to post at 4:50. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.

BAD NEWS, prominent from the start, moved up fast in the stretch and passed the tiring PEDRO, but had to be hard driven to withstand the closing rush of KOPEK. The latter, after being kept close up in the early running, moved up rapidly in the stretch and finished with a rush. LIGHT WOOL made a belated stretch sprint and was running fastest of all at the end. PEDRO set a fast pace and tired in the final drive. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—93213 Rather Royal, 107.

Overweights—Invergarry, 2 pounds; Pirate Bay, 3.

PANIC IN PENSACOLA RING.

Pensacola, Fla., December 12.—The ring at Kupfrian Park experienced a panle today as a result of the persistent backing accorded to Carew in the closing race. His price was hammered down from 6 to 1 to 6 to 5. His failure to land any portion of the purse afforded the layers opportunity to quit handsome winner on the day. Bleak weather held the attendance down, but speculation was fairly brisk throughout the afternoon. Judges Burke and Smith got after some of the riders and warned them that unless they showed more activity, suspensions would follow. Among those cautioned were J. Brooks, J. Howard and Guy.

The entry of The Earl will not be accepted hare in future because of his unfit condition. Jockey Brooks was suspended for six days by the starter for disobedience at the post.
